MIGRANT PROGRAM FUNDED

$148,175 GRANT FROM OEO

The Office of Economic Opportunity has awarded the college a grant of $148,175 to continue for a third consecutive summer its self-help program for children of seasonally employed migrant workers.

This year's "Migrant Educational and Enrichment Program" will be conducted June 26 - August 11 at three off-campus centers. Remedial education in reading, mathematics, and language development is planned for 400 migrant children. A special family unit program for 60 migrant parents is also part of the project.

Program director is Sister Simone Fitzpatrick, RSHM, principal of St. Lawrence School in North Miami Beach. Heading the three off-campus centers are James Kutz, Sr., Herbert Burden, William J. Manko, Collins Plummer, and Dan Cox.

The professional staff will consist of certified teachers and specialists in art, music, speech, guidance, recreation, and social work.

Dr. Doyon, commencement speaker, congratulates daughter, Suzette, awarded medal as top liberal arts graduate.

RABBI VISITING LECTURER IN THEOLOGY

Rabbi Isaac Neuman of Temple Judah in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, has been appointed visiting lecturer in theology for 1967-68. An authority on Aramaic language, Rabbi Neuman will present four lectures during the year. He is on the faculty of Cornell College in Mt. Vernon, Iowa.

A graduate of the University of Cincinnati and the Hebrew Union College of Cincinnati, Rabbi Neuman formerly headed congregations in Panama and Alabama. He is president of the all-denominational Conference of Clergymen of Cedar Rapids.

YOUNG MEN AWARDED SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships awarded five young men will usher in a co-educational era at Marymount. The first males to enter as degree candidates, they will be day students in the liberal arts curriculum. Although the college has enrolled males as part-time and special students in the past, this is the first group of men to be registered full-time.

VISITING PROFESSOR OF ART

Sister Mary Joseph, O.P., head of the Department of Art at Barry College in Miami, has been named visiting professor of art for 1967-68. Sister has her degrees from Siena Heights College, Adrian, Michigan; the Chicago Art Institute; Catholic University of America; and Studio Angelico in Adrian. She has exhibited in several annual shows at the Toledo Museum; Cleveland Museum; Wayne State University, Newman Student Center; and at the Lowe Gallery, University of Miami.

A member of numerous professional art associations, Sister Mary Joseph attended the INSEA Congress in Tokyo in 1965 and presented a paper as delegate from the U. S. on "Preserving Creativity in Children." From 1961-1964 she was President of the National Conference of Catholic Art Educators and is presently on the Executive Board of the Florida Arts Council. She has published articles on "Art for Human Living," "When Art Is Really Art," and "Every Child Is an Artist if Grown-ups Lend a Hand."
